

Indiana Libraries: Instructions to Authors

Indiana Libraries is a professional journal for librarians and media specialists. Published twice a year, it is a joint publication of the Indiana Library Federation and the Indiana State Library.

Practitioners, educators, and researchers are invited to submit manuscripts for publication. Manuscripts may concern a current practice, policy, or general aspect of the operation of a library system in Indiana.

For information and to discuss ideas for article topics, contact Indiana Libraries editor:

Indiana Libraries: Instructions to Authors

Style. Manuscript should follow the Chicago Manual of Style, 14th edition. References should appear at the end of the manuscript; footnotes should not be used. The article should be double-spaced throughout with good margins. Pages should be unnumbered. Manuscripts should be original and not published elsewhere. Authors are responsible for the accuracy of all materials including quotations, references, etc.

Length. Contributions of major importance should be 10-15 pages double-spaced. Rebuttals, whimsical pieces and short essays should be 2-7 pages, double-spaced. (Graphics, charts and tables not included in page count.) Charts and tables should be submitted separately from text.

Graphics. Authors are responsible for obtaining permission to use graphic materials (illustrations, images, photographs, screen captures, etc.). Submit camera-ready artwork for all illustrations. Black and white only.

Submitting manuscripts. Authors should be identified by a cover sheet that contains the author's name, position, address and e-mail address. Identifying information should not appear on the manuscript. Manuscripts should be submitted electronically in one of two ways:

1. Microsoft Word (preferred), WordPerfect or plain ASCII text file on a PC-compatible disk, accompanied by a paper copy. (See editor's address above.)
2. Microsoft Word (preferred), WordPerfect or plain ASCII text file (PC compatible) attached to an e-mail message addressed to both cgallion@ifonline.org and okada@Indiana.edu

Manuscripts will be acknowledged upon receipt and a decision concerning use will be made within twenty days after the date of receipt. The editor reserves the right to revise all accepted manuscripts for clarity and style. Upon publication, the author will receive two complimentary copies.

Indiana Libraries

It's your journal

Story ideas that need your input. Volunteer to write, suggest an author, suggest a subject.....

- Library Movers and Shakers. Do you know an Indiana librarian or library staff member who's doing great things that other should know about?
- Great Ideas, Great Programs. Share your successes; let others know how they can do what you do!
- Controversies, Issues, Concerns. Discuss professional concerns; explore current issues and controversies related to libraries and librarians.
- Growing Physically and Digitally. Describe your library's building growth or digital expansion.
- Indiana Library History. Help determine the future by celebrating the past.

Indiana Libraries Guest Editor Guidelines

1. It is important that each issue of Indiana Libraries, when not constrained by subject focus, represent all types of libraries. It is also important that each issue of Indiana Libraries be geographically representational. In other words, each issue of Indiana Libraries must be composed of articles about different types of libraries which have been written by members of the library community who are from geographically diverse areas of the state, in order to provide a diverse, statewide sampling of current research, articles, etc.
2. The guest editor of an issue of Indiana Libraries will work with the appropriate ILF unit(s) to produce a cooperative publication.
3. The guest editor of an issue of Indiana Libraries should have a professional background related to the scope of the issue, especially when dealing with technical or profession-specific topics.
4. The guest editor of an issue of Indiana Libraries must be prepared to review and edit articles for content, clarity, and style.
5. The specific terms and conditions of a guest editorship will be detailed in a professional services contract for that issue. The guest editor of an issue of Indiana Libraries will be required to sign the professional services contract with the Indiana Library Federation upon being selected.
6. All applicants must submit a letter of application and writing samples. The guest editor of an issue of Indiana Libraries must be an ILF member. ILF staff and/or the current volunteer editor of Indiana Libraries are eligible to apply for the position of guest editor of an issue of Indiana Libraries.
7. The ILF Publications Committee and executive office will interview each applicant for the position of guest editor and make a hiring recommendation to the ILF executive office and Board. The final and official decision will be made by the ILF Executive Board.

Adopted by Committee: 8/5/98

Approved by COES: 7/28/98

Ratified by ILF Executive Board: 9/9/98
