Practitioners, educators and researchers are invited to submit manuscripts for publication in Indiana Libraries. If you have an idea for a paper or wish to discuss a possible topic, contact Daniel Callison, Editor, School of Library and Information Science, Indiana University, Bloomington, IN 47405; or call (812) 335-5113 or 334-0653.

Most manuscripts should not exceed 10 double-spaced typed pages, although longer manuscripts are welcome. They may concern a current practice, policy or general aspect of the operation of a library system in Indiana.

Topics may include the following, although any aspect of library practice in Indiana will be considered:

Government Document Collections	Public Relations
Historic Figures in Indiana Libraries	Services to the Handicapped
Cooperation between school and public libraries
Evolution of the small, rural public library

Writers should be identified by a cover sheet with author's name, position and address. Identifying information should not appear on the manuscript.

Manuscripts will be acknowledged on receipt. The editor reserves the right to revise all accepted manuscripts for clarity and style. Upon publication, the author will receive two complimentary copies.

Beginning with Volume 5, INDIANA LIBRARIES will be published as warranted by the number of articles submitted.
