INTRODUCTION OF GENERAL ORDINANCES

By Councilman Emhardt:

GENERAL ORDINANCE NO. 56, 1954

AN ORDINANCE expressly repealing General Ordinance No. 16, 1954; and, if and as may be necessary, also expressly reviving and réordaining any and all provisions of the Municipal Code of Indianapolis, 1951, and of any other ordinances of said city, that may possibly have been impliedly either "repealed, amended, modified and construed," or otherwise affected in any manner, or referred to, by the aforesaid General Ordinance No. 16, 1954, or any provisions thereof.

WHEREAS, General Ordinance No. 16, 1954, was not prepared by, or for any member of the Common Council, but was introduced at the solicitation of its author and sponsor who was to obtain and receive the private profits and benefits to be derived from a grant of the privilege of using such benches for advertising purposes; and such ordinance was inadvertently ordained without due consideration of its validity, or of the power to ordain same; or of its possible harmful effect, if allowed to stand, upon various provisions of the Municipal Code and ordinances; and

WHEREAS, the attention of the Common Council has since such ordainment been directed to various decisions of the Supreme and Appellate Courts of Indiana, in harmony with general prevailing applicable principles of law, whereby it has been decided that it is beyond the delegated powers of the City to grant to anyone any privileges and uses in any portions of the dedicated streets and highways and sidewalks for any structures, or otherwise, which constitute a continuing obstruction of any portion thereof of a permanent nature and a consequent public nuisance; or which privileges and uses are in any respect and to any degree for the private profit and benefit of any such permittee or licensee, even though also serving to some extent some public convenience and use in any other respects; and by reason thereof, the Common Council now declares that the aforesaid ordinance, in its entirety, is invalid and void, and that the best interests of the City and of the citizens thereof will be served and so now require its repeal:

Now, Therefore, Be It Ordained by the Common Council of the City of Indianapolis:

Section 1. That General Ordinance No. 16, 1954, of the City of Indianapolis, Indiana, entitled:

"AN ORDINANCE regulating and licensing the installation and maintenance of courtesy benches upon or near public thoroughfares and sidewalks, and amending the Municipal Code of Indianapolis, 1951, as adopted by General Ordinance No. 140, 1951, and more particularly Title 7, Chapter 2, Sec. 7-202, Subsection (2) thereof, establishing fees for licenses and permits, subject to the penalties, and fixing a time when said amendment shall take effect”; should be and it is hereby expressly repealed, in its entirety; and the aforesaid preamble is here included as a part of this section and of the ensuing section, but such repeal is not dependent in any respect upon such preamble, or upon anything therein contained.

Section 2. That, to remove any possible doubt, or uncertainty, of the uninterrupted and continuing full effect and force of any and all provisions of the Municipal Code of Indianapolis, 1951, and of any other ordinances of said city, which were purported by any provisions and particularly by Section 15 of said General Ordinance No. 16, 1954, to have been thereby impliedly “repealed, amended, modified and construed,” or otherwise affected, in giving full force and effect to such ordinance, if it was and is invalid and void, as the Common Council now so finds and declares; and, also, in the event and if perchance such ordinance should be held to be valid and effective during the interval between the effective dates of its ordainment and of its repeal by this ordinance; then and as either such alternative may require, as relevant thereto, it is hereby ordained that each and all such prior provisions of said Code and ordinances that may possibly have been so repealed, amended, modified, or otherwise affected in any manner or degree by the ordainment and approval of said General Ordinance No. 16, 1954, or otherwise, are hereby and henceforth expressly revived and reordained and continued in full force, form and effect, and to any extent necesasry, as such provisions existed when such General Ordinance No. 16, 1954, was ordained and approved, the same as if it had never been ordained.

Section 3. This ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage and approval by the Mayor, or as otherwise provided by law.

Which was read for the first time and referred to the Committee on City Welfare.

By Councilman Radel:

GENERAL ORDINANCE NO. 57, 1954

AN ORDINANCE establishing a certain passanger and/or loading zone in the City of Indianapolis, pursuant to the provisions of Section 26 of General Ordinance No. 96, 1928, as amended; and fixing a time when the same shall take effect.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COMMON COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA:

Section 1. That for the purpose of providing the owners or occupants of certain premises fronting on certain public streets in the City of Indianapolis with ingress and egress for passengers, materials and merchandise coming to or going from such premises, such owners or occupants having complied with the provisions of Section 26 of General Ordinance No. 96, 1928, as amended, and the Board of Public Safety, after due investigation, having recommended the establishment of the same, the following passenger and/or loading zone be and the same is hereby established in the City of Indianapolis, to wit:

(a) A loading zone beginning at a point fifty-seven (57) feet South of the South curb line of Pearl Street and extending fifty (50) feet South on the West side of South Capitol Avenue, for the use and occupancy of the Indianapolis Belting and Supply Company, 34 South Capitol Avenue.

Section 2. That said loading zone is hereby declared to be subject to all existing traffic and parking regulations and to any later ordinances and regulations as may be applicable.
