The City Clerk submitted the following report; which was received:

Indianapolis, May 7, 1877.

To the Mayor and Common Council of the City of Indianapolis:

Gentlemen:—I respectfully report that on the 25th day of April, 1877, I transmitted to the City Commissioners the petition of Wm. H. English and others, for the laying out and opening of Dillon street, in a width of sixty (60) feet, from the first alley north of Deloss street, at the intersection of Cedar street, in a northerly direction to the Michigan road, and resolution of your honorable body concerning the same; and that I issued notice to the said Commissioners, according to law, and also to the owners of property.

Respectfully submitted,

BENJ. C. WRIGHT,
City Clerk.

The Board of City Commissioners submitted the following report; which was referred to the Committee on Laying Out and Opening Streets and Alleys, and the City Attorney:

Indianapolis, May 2, 1877.

To the Mayor and Common Council of the City of Indianapolis:

Gentlemen:—Your Commissioners would respectfully report to your honorable body that, pursuant to notice from City Clerk, we did, on the 25th day of April, ult., meet and examine the papers in the matter of opening and widening Dillon street, and do hereby report that the parties unknown and non-resident have been published in the paper but two times, whereas the law requires three publications; therefore, we await your further action in the case.

And your Commissioners would respectfully suggest to your honorable body the expediency of vacating Bobbs' street, in view of the fact that Bobbs' street has never been opened out; and further, that Bobbs' street run parallel with Dillon street, and within about 120 feet from Dillon street, and especially as it is proposed to take a part of that 120 feet to widen Dillon street.

Respectfully submitted,

GEO. W. HILL,
Clerk of Board of City Commissioners

The City Clerk presented the following petition; which was also referred to the Committee on Laying Out and Opening Streets and Alleys, and the City Attorney:

Indianapolis, May 3, 1877.

To the Mayor and Common Council of the City of Indianapolis:

Gentlemen:—The undersigned, attorney acting for and on behalf of Mrs. Catharine C. Bobbs, in relation to the widening of Dillon street, respectfully represents that she is the owner of a number of lots bordering on the east side of said street, from which ground must be taken to widen the street.

She has heretofore filed a plat of her land, and located a street known as Bobbs' street, which is east of and parallel with said Dillon street, through the whole length of her land. She now, in view of widening Dillon street, hereby proposes to release all claim for damages against the city; provided, Bobbs' street, as it now exists, be vacated; which, when done, will enable her to change the frontage of her lots, and will be injurious to none. The parties on the west side of Dillon street, opposite her premises, have been informed of this proposition, and are well satisfied, because the damages will be settled, as far as she is concerned, without expense or injury to any of them. She has never sold any of the lots, nor has Bobbs' street ever been opened or used by the public. The vacating of Bobbs' street will give her as much ground on the east side as will be taken off the west side of her lots, and leave room for an alley in place of Bobbs' street. Wherefore, she prays such action may be taken by the Council as may be consistent with the statutes, and consonant with the statements and proposition herein set forth.

JAMES N. SWEETZER, Attorney.
