Indianapolis, Ind., August 17th, 1891.

To the Members of the Common Council:

Gentlemen:—I have approved General Ordinance No. 29, passed at your session held July 27th, 1891; also, Special Ordinance No. 2, passed at your session held August 3d, 1891.

T. L. SULLIVAN, Mayor.

To the Members of the Common Council:

Gentlemen:—I have approved Resolution No. 10, passed at your session held August 28th, 1891.

Very respectfully yours,

THOS. L. SULLIVAN, Mayor.

To the Members of the Common Council:

Gentlemen:—I herewith submit to you the report of the City Comptroller, made to me, showing the estimated receipts and expenses of the city during the first fiscal year commencing September 1, 1891. These amounts have been carefully considered by the various Boards; then revised by the Comptroller and myself, and I recommend them to you as substantially correct.

It gives me great pleasure to be able to recommend to you sixty-five (65) cents, in addition to a fifty cent poll, as a tax rate sufficient to pay these estimated expenses. This decrease in rate is very great, but with care and economy the city can be carried forward within the estimate recommended to you.

Section 50 of the Charter makes it your duty to finally determine these estimates with the limitation that they can not be increased, but having once fixed them, you must make a rate sufficiently high to pay such estimates.

Respectfully submitted,

Indianapolis, Sept. 11, 1891.

THOMAS L. SULLIVAN, Mayor.

OFFICE OF THE CITY COMPTROLLER,
Indianapolis, Ind., Sept 1st, 1891. }

The settlement for the second installment of the tax duplicate of 1891 will not accrue until after the expiration of this fiscal year, but the city will have in lieu thereof the money which will come from the second installment of the duplicate of 1890. The amount will stand thus:

I therefore recommend that the Common Council be asked to make a levy of sixty five (65) cents on each one hundred dollars valuation of property, and fifty (50) cents on each poll, for the purpose of raising revenue for the fiscal year beginning to-day. At the end of the fractional year just ended, there remained unexpended of former appropriations, the following balances, to-wit:

The City Attorney having advised me that these balances are available for this year's business, I recommend that the Council be asked to make appropriations for estimated expenses, less these balances, except in the item of "Streets and Alleys." For this purpose I would recommend that an appropriation be made for one hundred thousand dollars in addition to the balance brought forward. I make this recommendation for the reason that the Board of Public Works are prohibited from making contracts for work unless the money to pay for the work has been appropriated by the Council. It is reasonable to suppose that there will be about the same amount of contracts outstanding at the end of the fiscal year as there was at its beginning. So one hundred thousand dollars will be sufficient to pay for all the contracts completed during the fiscal year.

Very respectfully,

WILLIAM WESLEY WOOLLEN,
City Comptroller.

To the Hon. THOMAS L. SULLIVAN, Mayor, City of Indianapolis.

Councilman Coy moved to refer the Comptroller's estimates to the Committee on Finance.

Which was adopted.
