INTRODUCTION OF GENERAL AND SPECIAL ORDINANCES.

By Mr. Rubens:

General Ordinance No. 23—1910: An ordinance providing for the licensing and regulation of vendors of prepared food and lunches; regulating the stationing of wagons or vehicles where such food or lunches is placed on sale, fixing a penalty for the violation thereof, and fixing a time when the same shall take effect.

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the Common Council of the City of Indianapolis, Indiana, That it shall be unlawful for any person or persons owning, controlling or managing any lunch wagon or other vehicle from which is sold any prepared food or lunches in said city to engage in the business or sell any such prepared food or lunches upon any of the streets, alleys or public places of said city, without first having obtained a license so to do.

SEC. 2. Any person or persons desiring to engage in the business of vending or selling prepared food or lunches from wagons or other vehicles, shall make application to the City Controller, of the City of Indianapolis, for a license as required in Section 1 of this ordinance and upon the payment of the sum of fifty dollars ($50.00) said City Controller shall issue to said person or persons a license to conduct the business of vending or selling prepared food or lunches for one year, or said person or persons may procure a license for six (6) months upon the payment of the sum of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) to said City Controller. All of said licenses shall bear date of January 1 and July 1 of each year, and no reduction shall be made for any part of said period having already elapsed. Said licenses shall be issued in accordance with the police regulations hereinafter set out: Provided, however, That such license herein authorized shall permit said person or persons to operate but one (1) wagon, but any number of licenses may be issued to the same person or persons upon the payment of the license fee hereinbefore set out, which said license shall be displayed in a conspicuous place in or upon said wagon or vehicle.

SEC. 3. Any person or persons obtaining a license to conduct the business of vending or selling prepared food or lunches from wagons or other vehicles, shall, before commencing to operate such business, obtain the written consent of the owner, lessee, agent or tenant of any property abutting upon the street, alley or public place in front of which property said person or persons desire to conduct such business, and upon presenting such written consent to the Superintendent of Police of the City of Indianapolis, said Superintendent shall designate the place where such wagon or vehicle may be stationed.

SEC. 4. Any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars ($100.00), to which may be added imprisonment in the county jail or workhouse for a period not exceeding thirty (30) days, and each day said ordinance is violated shall constitute a separate offense.

SEC. 5. All ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict with the provisions of this ordinance are hereby repealed.

SEC. 6. This ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage and publication once each week for two consecutive weeks in the Indianapolis Commercial, a daily newspaper of general circulation printed and published in the City of Indianapolis, Indiana.

Which was read a first time and referred to the Committee on Fees and Salaries.

By Mr. Copeland:

General Ordinance No. 24—1910: An ordinance to amend Clause F, Section 5, of General Ordinance No. 32—1907, entitled "An ordinance concerning the compensation of all officers, heads of departments, clerks, assistants and employes of the City of Indianapolis, Indiana, and repealing all ordinances in conflict therewith, approved May 16, 1907."

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the Common Council of the City of Indianapolis, Indiana, That the fourth paragraph of Clause F, Section 5, of General Ordinance No. 32—1907, entitled "An ordinance concerning the compensation of all officers, heads of departments, clerks, assistants and employes of the City of Indianapolis, Indiana, and repealing all ordinances in conflict herewith," approved May 16, 1907, where said fourth paragraph reads "the clerk to the Chief Inspector of Street Sweeping shall receive a salary at the rate of seventy-five dollars ($75.00) per month" be, and the same is hereby amended so as to read "the clerk to the Chief Inspector of Street Sweeping shall receive a salary at the rate of one hundred dollars ($100.00) per month."

General Ordinance No. 25—1910: An ordinance prohibiting the distribution of merchandise or other things to be raffled for or disposed of by chance.

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the Common Council of the City of Indianapolis, That it shall be unlawful for any person to deliver, sell, loan, lease, give or distribute to any merchant, retail dealer or other person any device or apparatus intended to be used for raffling, or the disposal or distribution by lot or chance of any merchandise, money, goods, chattel or thing in action for a valuable consideration. The act of any person, firm or corporation of permitting raffling by the use of any device or apparatus shall be deemed prima facie evidence that said device or apparatus when so delivered, sold, loaned, leased, given away or distributed to such person, firm or corporation was intended to be used for raffling.

SEC. 2. Any person violating this ordinance shall, on conviction, be fined in a sum not exceeding one hundred ($100.00) dollars, to which may be added imprisonment not exceeding thirty (30) days.

SEC. 3. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication once each week for two consecutive weeks in the Indianapolis Commercial.

Which was read a first time and referred to the Committee on Ordinances.

By Mr. Copeland:

General Ordinance No. 26—1910: An ordinance providing for the creation and establishment of a bureau of inspection for the prevention of fires within the City of Indianapolis, providing for the inspection of certain buildings, for the appointment of inspectors, defining and fixing their duties and powers, regulating and restricting the storage and disposal of waste material, refuse matter, rubbish, debris and other inflammable materials, providing penalties for the violation thereof, and fixing the time when same shall take effect.

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the Common Council of the City of Indianapolis, Indiana, That there be and hereby is created a bureau of inspection for the prevention of fires within said city, to be known as the Fire Prevention and Inspection Bureau; said bureau to consist of one or more persons to be appointed by the Board of Public Safety, upon the nomination, in writing, by the Chief Fire Engineer, from the regular fire force of said city, and no such nomination shall be made for the appointment to said bureau of any member of said fire force of any grade lower than that of first grade fireman.

SEC. 2. The chief of said bureau shall, by virtue of his appointment, have and hold the rank, title and compensation of a captain in the regular fire force, and each assistant, or inspector, shall have and hold a rank, title and compensation not lower than that of a fireman of the first grade. The chief of said bureau and each assistant or inspector shall remain and continue to be members of the fire force and subject at all times to the order and direction of the Board of Public Safety and the Chief Fire Engineer.

SEC. 3. For the purpose of preventing fires within said city, it shall be the duty of the chief of said bureau to inspect, or cause to be inspected, all buildings of every kind and character whatsoever now or hereafter used, in whole or in part, for any purpose for, or by reason of which, the general public is solicited or permitted to enter and frequent such buildings; to inspect, or cause to be inspected, any public or private sanitarium, hospital, surgical institute, gymnasium, asylum, school house, dormitory, church, theater, hall or other place of public assemblage or resort, any factory, laundry, workshop, repair shop, store room or mercantile establishment of any kind, any hotel, family hotel, boarding house, lodging house, flat building, apartment house, tenement house, club house, livery stable, boarding stable or sales stable.

SEC. 4. The said chief of said bureau, his assistants, or any of them, shall have the power to order and direct the manner and method of disposing of, or temporarily storing, all inflammable waste material, packing material, excelsior, loose or waste paper, boxes, barrels, rubbish, debris or other inflammable materials, and to require any tenant or occupant of any such building to provide suitable receptacles for receiving and containing any such inflammable material. Such chief, or his assistant, shall have the power to require that any such inflammable materials, as herein described, shall be removed from the premises and properly disposed of at the close of ordinary business hours, or to require its storage under proper precautions and safeguards against fire and, for that purpose, may require that such materials, if stored in any building for a longer period than ten hours, shall be stored in a sealed or closed fireproof receptacle or fireproof room provided with standard fireproof doors. Said chief of such bureau shall have the power to inspect all line shaftings and hangers thereon and to require that all bearings and hangers shall be equipped with metal drop boxes or drip pans.

SEC. 5. Said chief, or his assistant, shall have the power to require that all goods, wares, merchandise, manufactures, or other materials or obstructions of any kind shall be placed or stored in any building as to provide a free and unobstructed passageway for the use of the fire force in case of fire, and to require that all aisles, halls, passageways and doorways, or other openings, shall be kept free from any obstruction of any kind that will interfere with the free passage of the same by members of the fire force in case of necessity to use them.

SEC. 6. Such chief of said bureau, or his assistant, shall have the power to order and require compliance with the provisions of this ordinance, and for that purpose shall, upon the refusal of any person, firm or corporation, or tenant or occupant or owner of any building, to comply therewith, serve or cause to be served, upon such person, firm or corporation, or tenant or occupant, a written notice to so comply with the provisions of this ordinance, which written notice shall specifically set forth what shall be required from such person, firm, corporation, tenant or occupant and the time in which it shall be required to be done. Such written notice may require such person, firm or corporation, tenant or occupant to comply with the provisions of this ordinance within any reasonable time and may require the immediate removal of any waste or inflammable material, rubbish, debris, etc.

SEC. 7. Any person, firm, corporation, tenant, owner or occupant failing or refusing to comply with the provisions of this ordinance after due service of the written notice provided for herein shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined in any sum not less than five ($5) dollars nor more than one hundred ($100) dollars.

SEC. 8. This ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage and publication once each week for two consecutive weeks in the Indianapolis Commercial, a daily newspaper printed and published in the City of Indianapolis.

Which was read a first time and referred to the Committee on Ordinances.

By Mr. Copeland:

General Ordinance No. 27—1910: An ordinance regulating the use of vehicles on the streets, alleys and public highways of the City of Indianapolis; providing penalties for the violation thereof, and fixing a time when the same shall take effect.

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the Common Council of the City of Indianapolis, Indiana, That it shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to use or leave standing in any public street, alley or highway within the corporate limits of the City of Indianapolis, from one-half hour before sunrise, any vehicle of any kind, unless there shall be kept burning on the front of said vehicle at least one white light, visible for a distance of not less than two hundred feet, and on the rear at least one red light, visible for a distance of not less than two hundred feet, or, in lieu thereof, at least one light so located on the vehicle as to be visible both toward the front and toward the rear of not less than two hundred feet, and which shall show white towards the front and red towards the rear.

SEC. 2. Any person, firm or corporation violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall, upon conviction, be fined not less than one dollar ($.00), nor more than one hundred dollars ($100), to which may be added imprisonment for a term not to exceed sixty days in the Marion County jail or workhouse.

SEC. 3. This ordinance shall take effect and be in full force in twenty days from and after its passage and publication once each week for two consecutive weeks in the Indianapolis Commercial, a daily newspaper having a general circulation in the City of Indianapolis.
