The Metropolitan Plan Commission, by resolution on May 23, 1962, acted to recall its previous authorization for the Boards of Zoning Appeals to issue improvement location permits and instead to begin handling such permits from the new office of the Metropolitan Planning Department no later than January 1, 1963, if proper personnel and budgetary arrangements can be made.

It is recommended that two people each from the City and County Boards of Zoning Appeals' staffs who are presently assigned to this duty be transferred to the Metropolitan Planning Department. If this adjustment cannot be made, or if only one person can be transferred from each Board of Zoning Appeals, then the Commission will request the necessary additional clerical positions on the Metropolitan Planning Department staff to perform this function.
