Section 1.1—Obscenity Defined. A thing is obscene, if considered as a whole, its predominant appeal is to prurient interest, that is, a shameful or morbid interest in nudity, sex or excretion, and if it goes substantially beyond customary limits of candor in description or representation of such matters. A thing is obscene even though the obscenity is latent, as in the case of undeveloped photographs.

Section 1.2—Acts Prohibited. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation with knowledge of the nature or content thereof, to exhibit, sell, print, offer to sell, give away, circulate, publish, distribute, or attempt to distribute any obscene book, magazine, pamphlet, paper, writing, card, advertisement, circular, print, picture, photograph, motion picture, film, play, image, instrument, statue, drawing, or other article which is obscene.

Section 1.3—Children Under 18 Years. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation with knowledge of the nature or content thereof to exhibit, sell, offer to sell, give away, circulate, or distribute or attempt to distribute to any person under the age of 18 years any obscene book, magazine, pamphlet, paper, writing, card, advertisement, circular, print, picture, photograph, motion picture film, play, image, instrument, statue, drawing, or other material.

Section 1.4—Interpretation and Admissibility of Evidence. Obscenity shall be judged with reference to ordinary adults, except that it shall be judged with reference to children or other specially susceptible audience if it appears from the character of the material or the circumstances of its dissemination to be specially designed for or directed to such an audience. In any prosecution for an offense under this Section evidence shall be admissible to show:

- (1) The character of the audience for which the material was designed or to which it was directed.
- (2) What the predominant appeal of the material would be for ordinary adults or a special audience, and what effect, if any, it would probably have on the behavior of such people.
- (3) The artistic, literary, scientific, educational or other merits of the material, or absence thereof;
- (4) The degree, if any, of public acceptance of the material in this State;
- (5) Appeal to prurient interest, or absence thereof, in advertising or other promotion of the material;
- (6) Purpose of the author, creator, publisher or disseminator.

The creation, purchase, procurement or possession of a mold, engraved plate or other embodiment of obscenity specially adapted for reproducing multiple copies, or the possession of more than 3 copies of obscene material shall be prima facie evidence of an intent to disseminate.

Section 1.6—Defenses. It shall be an affirmative defense to a prosecution brought for violation of this Ordinance that the dissemination:

- (1) Was to institutions or individuals having scientific or other special justification for possession of such material.

Section 1.7—Penalty. Any person, firm or corporation who violates the provisions of Section 1.2 of this Ordinance, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in an amount of not less than One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars nor more than Three Hundred ($300.00) Dollars.

Section 1.8—Repeal. Section — of Ordinance No. — is hereby expressly repealed.

Section 1.9—Validity and Separability. Should any section, paragraph, sentence or word of this Ordinance be declared for any reason to be invalid, such invalidity shall not effect the validity or enforceability of any other section, paragraph, sentence or word.

Section 1.10—Effective Date. This Ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage and approval and publication as provided by law.

Which was read for the first time and referred to the Committee on Finance.
