INTRODUCTION OF GENERAL AND SPECIAL ORDINANCES.

By Board of Public Works:

General Ordinance No. 20—1912: An ordinance approving a certain contract granting W. J. Holliday & Co. the right to relay and maintain a sidetrack or switch in Georgia Street crossing West Street according to blue print attached, in the City of Indianapolis, Ind.

WHEREAS, heretofore, to-wit: on the 19th day of February, 1912, filed his petition before the Board of Public Works of the City of Indianapolis, as follows:

PETITION.

To the Board of Public Works, City of Indianapolis:

GENTLEMEN: We, the undersigned, do hereby petition your Honorable Board for the right to relay and maintain a sidetrack, or switch, in Georgia and West streets, in the City of Indianapolis, said switch now being known as the old Central Chair Company's switch.

W. J. HOLLIDAY & Co., by J. S. HOLLIDAY, Vice-Pres.

Now therefore, This agreement, made and entered into this ____ day of _____ 191____, by and between _____ of the City of Indianapolis, County of Marion, State of Indiana, party of the first part, and the City of Indianapolis, by and through its Board of Public Works, party of the second part.

Witnesseth: That the party of the first part, being desirous of securing a right of way to relay sidetrack or switch from the C. C. & St. L. Railway Co.'s main switching track in West Georgia street, in the City of Indianapolis, which is more specifically described as follows: Starting at a switch in the aforesaid main switching track, one hundred and forty feet (140 feet) west of the west line of West street, thence southeastwardly along a curve to the right one hundred and eighty feet (180 feet), thence continuing southeastwardly seventy feet (70 feet) to a point where said sidetrack, or switch, crosses the south line of Georgia street, ten feet (10 feet) east of the east line of West street, and shown in yellow on the attached blue print which is hereby made a part of this petition (This is a re-location of the siding already in use, and shown on the blue print herewith in dotted lines, and is needed in order to properly supply the needs of the building now in course of erection, which is the manufacturing department of W. J. Holliday & Co.), hereby covenants and fully binds himself, his successors, legal representatives and assigns, that, in consideration of the grant of privileges and authority herein given, he will relay, construct and maintain said track upon the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth, to-wit:

(1) They shall be so laid, improved and kept in repair as to be safe for persons on foot, in vehicles or otherwise, and shall, at all times, be subject to the orders of the Board of Public Works of the City of Indianapolis.

(2) Said track and switch shall be laid upon such grade as shall be established by said Board, and shall be put down under its supervision and to its satisfaction and approval. Said track shall be raised or lowered to conform to any grade which may, from time to time, be hereafter established, whenever so ordered, in writing, by said Board, and shall be made to conform in all respects with any ordinance passed by the common Council or with any resolution or resolutions made by said Board, for the elevation or depression of said tracks.

(3) The crossing where said track intersects West street shall, at all times, be kept improved and in repair and free from obstructions or defects of any kind. No car or cars shall be permitted to obstruct such crossing or to be thereon except for such time as may be absolutely necessary in moving them back and forth, and they shall be at no time stopped or detained thereon in such manner as to obstruct public travel.

(4) Said party of the first part agrees, upon the written order of said Board, made for any good cause affecting the interest of the City or the public welfare, to take up and remove said track, and upon said party's failure so to do, upon such notification in writing, of ten (10) days, to promptly pay the cost of having the same done, and the party of the first part hereby releases all claims for damages whatsoever that may arise by reason of such removal; and in removing said track or causing the same to be done, said Board shall in no wise become a trespasser.

(5) The party of the first part agrees to pave between said track to the entire satisfaction of the second party, and in case said tracks shall be or become out of repair or in need of being reconstructed, or become in any way defective (of which fact the said Board shall be the exclusive judge), it shall be the duty of the said party of the first part to promptly repair or remove same, failing in which, after notification in writing of ten (10) days, said Board shall do or cause the same to be done at the expense of the said party of the first part, and for which expense and cost the said party of the first part shall be liable.

(6) The said party of the first part herein binds himself to hold said party of the second part and said city harmless from any and all claims for damages growing out of the existence, maintenance or use of said track, and to pay any judgment, with costs, that may on that account be rendered against the said party or said city, and also to pay all necessary expenses that may be incurred by said city in defending against any such claims.

(7) Any violations of any of the provisions of this instrument by said party of the first part, or by any one for it or at its instance or with its permission, shall operate as an immediate and absolute forfeiture of the privileges and authority given or granted by this contract, provided, however, that the same may be terminated by said Board, as hereinbefore set forth.

Said party of the second part by virtue of the provisions of an act of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, entitled "An act concerning municipal corporations," approved March 6, 1905, and in consideration of the things hereinbefore set forth and upon the terms and provisions stipulated, hereby gives, grants and duly vests said party of the first part the right, privilege and authority to lay and maintain an additional sidetrack or switch across in the City of Indianapolis, all as shown by the drawing attached hereto, filed herewith and for greater certainty marked "Exhibit A."

In Witness Whereof, We have hereunto set our hands this 19th day of February, 1912.

W. J. HOLLIDAY & Co., by J. S. HOLLIDAY, Vice-Pres.,
Party of the First Part.

Witness: E. S. KEAY.
