INTRODUCTION OF GENERAL AND SPECIAL ORDINANCES.

By City Controller:

General Ordinance No. 29—1913: An ordinance authorizing the sale of one hundred fifty (150) bonds of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) each of the City of Indianapolis, Indiana, payable from the general revenues and funds of said City, or from the Sinking Fund of said City, or as may be required by law, for the purpose of procuring money to be used in making necessary repairs and improvements in the highways and in and about the waterways in the City of Indianapolis, Indiana, caused by the recent flood, and providing for the time and manner of advertising, sale of bonds and the receipt of bids for the same, together with the mode and terms of sale, and fixing a time when the same shall take effect.

WHEREAS, It is deemed necessary and proper for the best interests of the City of Indianapolis and the inhabitants thereof, to improve and repair the damage to the highways, waterways and other public places in the City of Indianapolis, Indiana, caused by the recent flood, and

WHEREAS, There is not now and will not be sufficient funds in the treasury of the City of Indianapolis with which to meet the aforesaid expenditures for such public welfare, and it being necessary for the City of Indianapolis to borrow the sum of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($150,000.00) in order to produce such a fund to be devoted to such purposes, and to issue and sell its bonds in such an amount payable from the general revenues and funds of said City, or from the Sinking Fund, or as may be required by law; therefore:

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the Common Council of the City of Indianapolis, Indiana, That the City Controller of said City be and is hereby authorized, for the purpose of procuring money to be used for the purpose of flood repairs and improvements for the City of Indianapolis, to prepare and sell one hundred fifty (150) new bonds of the City of Indianapolis, Marion County, Indiana, of the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) each, which bonds shall bear date of May 1, 1913, and shall be numbered from one (1) to one hundred fifty (150) both inclusive; shall be designated as "Flood Bonds of 1913"; shall mature on May 1, 1943; shall bear interest at the rate of four per cent. (4%) per annum, which interest shall be payable semi-annually on the first day of January and the first day of July, of each year, beginning with July 1, 1913, and said installments of interest shall be evidenced by interest coupons attached to said bonds, and the first coupon attached to each bond shall be for the interest on said bond from date of issue until the first day of July, 1913. Said bonds and interest coupons shall be negotiable and payable at The Indiana Trust Company, Indianapolis, Indiana. Said bonds shall be signed by the Mayor and City Controller of said City of Indianapolis, and attested by the City Clerk, who shall affix the seal of said City to each of said bonds, and the interest coupons attached to said bonds shall be authenticated by a lithographic facsimile of the signatures of the Mayor and City Controller of said City engraven thereon, which shall for all purposes be taken and deemed to be equivalent to a manual signing thereof. Said bonds shall be prepared by the City Controller in due form, irrevocably pledging the faith and credit of the City of Indianapolis to the payment of the principal and interest stipulated therein respectively.

It shall be the duty of the City Controller at the time of the issue and negotiation of said bonds, to register in a book kept for that purpose, all of said bonds so issued and negotiated in serial number, beginning with number one (1), giving also the date of their issuance, their amount, date of maturity, rate of interest, and the time and place where said interest shall be payable; said bonds shall be substantially in the following form, all blanks for numbers and dates to be properly filled in before the issuance thereof:

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

CITY OF INDIANAPOLIS.

"FLOOD BONDS OF 1913."

For value received, the City of Indianapolis, in Marion County, in the State of Indiana, hereby promises to pay to the bearer, without any relief from valuation or appraisal laws, on May first, 1943, at the Indiana Trust Company, Indianapolis, Indiana, one thousand dollars

($1,000.00), in lawful money of the United States of America, together with interest thereon at the rate of four per cent (4%) per annum from date until paid, the first interest payable on the first day of July, 1913, and the interest thereafter payable semi-annually, on the first day of January and July respectively, upon the presentation and surrender of the proper interest coupons hereunto attached, and which are made a part of this bond.

This bond is one of an issue of one hundred fifty (150) bonds, of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) each, numbered from one (1) to one hundred fifty (150), both inclusive, of date May first, 1913, issued by said City of Indianapolis, pursuant to an ordinance passed by the Common Council of the City on April, _____, 1913, and an Act of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, entitled "An Act Concerning Municipal Corporations," approved March 6, 1905.

It is hereby certified that all conditions, acts, and things essential to the validity of this bond exist, have happened, and have been done, and that every requirement of law affecting the issuance hereof has been duly complied with, and that this bond is within every debt and other limit prescribed by the Constitution and the laws of the State of Indiana, and that the faith and credit of the City of Indianapolis, Indiana, are hereby irrevocably pledged to the punctual payment of the principal and interest of this bond according to its terms.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, The Common Council of the City of Indianapolis, Indiana, has caused this bond to be signed by the Mayor and the City Controller, and attested by the City Clerk, and the corporate seal of the said City to be hereunto affixed this the _____ day of _____

SECTION 2. The City Controller shall, as soon as practicable after the passage of this ordinance, advertise for bids or proposals for said bonds by at least one insertion each in the Indianapolis Sun, and the Indianapolis Commercial, daily newspapers of general circulation, printed and published in the City of Indianapolis, and may otherwise advertise for such bids or proposals as he may deem advisable. Said advertisement shall describe said bonds with such minuteness and particularly as the City Controller may see fit, and shall set forth the amount of the bonds to be sold and the rate of interest they shall bear. That the bidder may bid for all or any part of said bonds, the date of opening bids or proposals therefor, the right of the City Controller to reject any or all bids, the amount of deposit each bidder will be required to make, and when and where the bonds shall be delivered and paid for.

SECTION 3. Each and every bid and proposal shall be presented to the City Controller sealed, and shall be accompanied by a duly certified check upon some responsible bank of the City of Indianapolis, Indiana, payable to the order of the City Treasurer, for the sum of money which shall equal two and one-half (2½%) percentum of the face or par value of the bonds bid for, or proposed to be purchased. The City Controller shall continue to receive bids or proposals therefor at the office of the City Controller until twelve o'clock noon, on the day fixed by the City Controller and designated in the advertisement for receiving bids or proposals, at which time and place and between the said hour and two P. M., of said day he shall open said bids or proposals. The City Controller shall award said bonds, or if he shall see fit, a part of any number thereof, to the highest and best bidder therefor; but said City Controller shall have full right to reject any and all such bids or proposals, or any part thereof, and shall have the right to accept a part of any bid, and to award upon any bid the whole or a less number of bonds covered by such bid, he being the sole judge of the sufficiency or insufficiency of any bid. He may also in his judgment and discretion award a part of said bonds to one bidder and part to another. These provisions shall apply to the case of reoffering and readvertising of said bonds as hereinafter provided.

SECTION 4. In the case the City Controller shall reject all bids submitted, or if he shall award only a part of said bonds, he shall readvertise the bonds remaining unsold in the manner as herein prescribed for the original advertisement, but in such readvertisement he is authorized and directed to fix the date and the time both for receiving and opening bids or proposals and for purchasers to take up and pay for the bonds which may be awarded. And he shall continue from time to time in like manner, to readvertise said bonds for sale until said bonds are sold.

SECTION 5. In case any bid or proposal shall not be accepted, and there shall be no award of bonds thereon by the City Controller, he shall thereupon return to such unsuccessful bidder the certified check accompanying the same. If the City Controller shall award the whole or any part of the bonds upon any bid or proposal, he shall thereupon deliver the certified check accompanying the same to the City Treasurer, who shall thereupon present the same for payment and shall be entitled to collect the same and shall hold the proceeds collected thereon until the completion of the purchase and the payment of the bonds so awarded. If, for any reason said check shall not be paid upon presentation, such non-payment shall be taken and deemed a breach of the contract for the purchase of said bonds upon the part of the purchaser, and the City, in that event, shall have the right to readvertise said bonds for sale at once, and shall, in such event, retain said check, and shall have the right to collect the same for its own use and said check and proceeds thereof, when collected, shall be taken and deemed as agreed and liquidated damages for such breach of contract and as a payment thereof to the City. In case any successful bidder shall fail to complete the purchase of the bonds so awarded, and to pay for the same, within the time and manner herein required, or which may be prescribed by the City Controller, as herein provided, the proceeds of such certified check deposited by such bidder shall be taken, considered and deemed as agreed and liquidated damages for the breach of such bidder's contract of purchase, and shall be taken and deemed as a payment to the City for such damages, and shall be retained and held by said City for its use; but if such successful bidder shall complete the purchase of said bonds awarded to him pursuant to the provisions hereof and his bid and award thereon, said proceeds of said certified check shall thereupon be returned to such bidder; or, at the option of the City Controller, at the time of the completion of the sale and payment for the bonds, said proceeds of said certified check may be applied and deemed a payment on account of the purchase of said bonds.

SECTION 6. Delivery of any bonds sold shall be made at the office of the City Treasurer of the City of Indianapolis, Indiana, upon such day or days as may be specified in the advertisement or readvertisement for proposals, or within such time thereafter as may be fixed by the City Controller, or at such time or times as may be agreed upon by the City Controller and the purchaser or purchasers, and the City Controller may extend the time for such delivery not more than ten days after the day or days specified or agreed upon as above provided; and the successful bidder or bidders, shall take the bonds awarded to him or them and pay for the same at such place and times, and his or her refusal, neglect or omission to do so shall be a breach of the contract of his bid or proposal, on account of which damages shall be retained or recovered as liquidated and provided in this ordinance.

SECTION 7. The bonds taken and paid for to the satisfaction of the City Controller shall be binding obligations upon the said City of Indianapolis, according to their tenor and effect.

SECTION 8. This ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage and approval by the Mayor.

Which was read a first time and referred to the Committee on Finance.

SECTION 2. That all ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

SECTION 3: That this ordinance shall take effect May 1, 1913.

Which was read a first time and referred to the Committee on Finance.

By Mr. Troy:

General Ordinance No. 33—1913: An ordinance supplementing an ordinance entitled "An Ordinance regulating privies," approved July 7, 1873.

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the Common Council of the City of Indianapolis, That every privy, privy vault, outhouse, or other building used as a privy, shall be so screened or otherwise protected by the owner or agent of the owner of the property upon which said privy is located, that flies shall not have access to the vault of said privy. The screening shall be done in the following manner, to-wit: windows, ventilating flues and all other openings of whatever size, shall be covered with a wire screen of not coarser than 14 mesh wire gauze. The door of said privy shall be fitted with a self-closing screen door of not coarser than 14 mesh wire gauze, or with a tight, fly-proof, self-closing door, and such door shall be kept closed at all times. All privy vaults hereafter made shall be so constructed as to be conveniently cleaned, and shall be made and maintained in such manner as to prevent the contents thereof from escaping. No privy vault or cess pool shall hereafter be constructed on any lot adjoining a street or alley containing a sanitary sewer.

SECTION 2. Wherever a stable is maintained for the care of one or more horses, mules, cows, or other animals, the owner of said stable shall construct and maintain a solid brick, concrete or wooden manure container, the floor of which shall be of concrete or other impervious material, and such container shall be provided with a self-closing, fly-proof door or lid. All containers having a cubical content of more than fifty (50) cubic feet shall be provided with a ventilating flue screened with a wire screen of not coarser than 14 mesh wire gauze. All manure from such stable or place where such animals are kept, shall be collected in such fly-proof container at least twice daily. The contents of such container shall be removed as otherwise provided by ordinance.

SECTION 3. It shall be the duty of the Department of Public Health and Charities of the City of Indianapolis to enforce the provisions of this ordinance. Notice to comply with any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be deemed to have been served if delivered to the person, firm, corporation or public officer to be notified; if left with any adult person at the usual residence or place of business of the person, firm, corporation or public officer to be notified; if mailed to the last known address of the person, firm, corporation or public officer to be notified and not returned by the postoffice authorities; if left with any adult person at the office or place of business of any agent of the person, firm, corporation or public officer to be notified. Notice to a corporation within the city shall, for the purpose of this ordinance, be deemed to have been served upon such corporation if served upon the president, secretary, manager, superintendent or any principal officer of such corporation in any manner herein provided. Notice to a foreign corporation shall, for the purpose of this ordinance, be deemed to have been served, if served upon any agent or representative of such corporation within the city in any manner herein provided. If the person, firm or corporation upon whom the notice hereinbefore required shall have been served fails to comply with the provisions of this ordinance as is in such notice directed within ten days from the time of service, the Department of Public Health and Charities shall order that the same be done by the proper officer or officers of their department, and that the cost thereof shall be reported to them. Thereupon, said Department of Public Health and Charities shall certify the cost of such construction, repairs or other necessary work to the city controller, who shall place the same upon the tax duplicate as a charge against the person, firm, or corporation owning said property, which cost shall be a lien upon said property.

SECTION 4. Any person, firm, corporation or public officer violating or failing to comply with any of the provisions of this ordinance, or with any order of the Department of Public Health and Charities in reference to this Ordinance, shall, upon conviction, be fined in any sum not exceeding fifty ($50) dollars.

SECTION 5. This ordinance shall be in force from and after its passage and publication for one day in each week for two successive weeks in two newspapers of general circulation in Indianapolis.

Which was read a first time.

Mr. Troy moved that the rules be suspended and General Ordinance No. 33, 1913, be placed upon its passage, which motion failed to carry by the following vote:

Ayes, 4, viz.: Messrs. Johnson, Rubens, Denny, and Stilz.
