Gentlemen:

Pursuant to the laws of the State of Indiana, I caused to be published in the Indianapolis Commercial on January 13, 1969 and again on January 20, 1969, and the Indianapolis News on January 14, 1969 and again on January 21, 1969, General Ordinance No. 43, 1968, as amended, and General Ordinance No. 44, 1968.

Mr. Thomas C. Hasbrook, President

Dear Mr. Hasbrook:

On behalf of the concerned citizens of Irvington, I wish to express our deep appreciation for the Indianapolis City Council's Resolution No. 2—1969 adopted at your last regular meeting, January 20th, at Howe High School concerning Brown's Hill at Emerson and East Washington Streets.

This action, we feel, was largely responsible in bringing about the request of the Standard Oil Company for the dismissal of their petition for rezoning of this area as a business site, at least for the present.

Will you please convey to the other members of the Council our sincere thanks for this resolution?

Very truly yours,
