Indianapolis, Ind., May 5, 1969

Mr. President:

I move that General Ordinance No. 15, 1969, be amended by striking out Section 3 and inserting in lieu thereof a new Section 3, to read as follows:

“Section 3. The City Controller shall, after negotiating sale of certificates of obligation secured by purchase money security interests, determine the proportion of the permanent loan here authorized which was made by each lender and the number of police patrol vehicles purchased with such part of the total. He shall thereupon supervise the preparation of security agreements in form sufficient under the Uniform Commercial Code, listing the particular vehicles and their equipment which constitute the collateral to be given to secure each certificate of obligation.

“The terms and tenor of the security agreements shall be a recital that the Lender advanced to the City of Indianapolis, money to enable the City to purchase specified police patrol vehicles, fully equipped, and that the proceeds of the permanent loan authorized by General Ordinance No. 15, 1969, and lent by the holder of certain specified certificates of indebtedness was used to purchase such vehicles, that the lender shall be entitled to enforce its purchase money security interest as provided by law in the event that the City of Indianapolis shall fail or refuse to repay its full indebtedness as provided by the evidence of such indebtedness. Such security agreement may warrant the ownership of the City of Indianapolis free and clear of any other incumbrances on the police patrol vehicles specified in such security agreement. The security agreements here authorized may include all parts, fittings and accessories as well as equipment.

“The Mayor shall, thereupon, be authorized to execute said security agreements, which shall be attested by the City Clerk, under the seal of the corporation, and counter-signed by the City Controller.

“Following execution of the security agreements, the City Controller shall deliver them to the various holders of certificates of obligation who have made permanent loans to the City of Indianapolis under authority of this ordinance.”

HAROLD J. EGENES, Councilman

The motion to further amend the Ordinance passed by unanimous voice vote.

Noes 2, viz: Mr. Forestal and Mr. Moriarty.

OLD BUSINESS

Mr. Moriarty questioned the legality of the Mayor's signature on General Ordinance No. 13, 1969. Mr. Moriarty read the statute covering the signing of ordinances from Burns Indiana Statutes.

Mr. Harold H. Kohlmeyer, Jr., Corporation Counsel, discussed the statute in a legal opinion given the Mayor concerning the time element involved, stating that in his opinion, the signing was valid.

The Chair ruled that the Ordinance was legally signed.

Mr. Kohlmeyer also gave a legal opinion on the tow-in contracts, previously let by a 1968 ordinance citing the Safety Board's prerogative to continue with the same contract.

President Hasbrook asked Mr. Leak to meet with the Safety Board to plan the drafting of a new ordinance on tow-in contracts, specifically setting out charges for various services.

NEW BUSINESS

President Hasbrook asked Mr. Egenes to assume the chair.

Mr. Egenes stated that the Council would fill a vacancy to the Board of Trustees of the City-County Building Authority, created by the death of Hubert C. Crafton.

President Hasbrook moved, seconded by Mr. Broderick, that Frederick C. Tucker, Jr., be appointed.

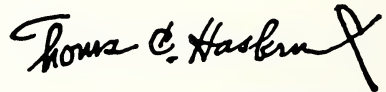

The motion passed by unanimous voice vote.

President Hasbrook announced that there would be a Regular Meeting of the Council on Monday, May 19, 1969, at 7:30 P.M. in the Lecture Room, Room 254, of John Marshall High School, 10001 East 38th Street, Indianapolis, Indiana.

On motion of Mr. Gorham, seconded by Rev. Williams, the Council adjourned at 10:15 P.M.

We hereby certify that the above and foregoing is a full, true, and complete record of the proceedings of the Common Council of the City of Indianapolis, held on the 5th day of May, 1969.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto subscribed our signatures and caused the seal of the City of Indianapolis to be affixed.
