GENERAL ORDINANCES

CITY-COUNTY GENERAL ORDINANCE NO. 155, 1971

Introduced by Councilman McPherson:

AN ORDINANCE amending The Code of Indianapolis and Marion County, 1970, by adding in Title 2, Chapter 3, additional sections creating the Historical and Architectural Landmarks Commission.

WHEREAS, the City-County Council finds that movements and shifts of population and changes in residential, commercial and industrial uses and customs threaten the continued existence of areas, places, buildings, structures, works of arts and other objects having special historical, architectural or aesthetic merit, the preservation and continued utilization of which are necessary and desirable as a part of sound community planning for Indianapolis and Marion County; and

WHEREAS, the preservation of historical and architectural landmarks will promote the public welfare of the residents of Marion County; and

WHEREAS, the preservation and continued utilization of such property is hereby declared to be a public use in promotion of public interest;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY-COUNTY

COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF INDIANAPOLIS AND OF MARION COUNTY, INDIANA:

Section 1. Title 2, Chapter 3 of the Code of Indianapolis and Marion County 1970 is hereby amended by adding the following section creating the Historical and Architectural Landmarks Commission:

2-350. Historical and Architectural Landmarks Commission. There shall be a Historical and Architectural Landmarks Commission, responsible to the City-County Council, composed of seven members.

2-351. Appointment of Members. Four members of the Historical and Architectural Landmarks Commission shall be appointed by the City-County Council. Two members of the Historical and Architectural Landmarks Commission shall be appointed by the Mayor. The Director of the Department of Metropolitan Development, or his representative, approved by the Mayor, shall be a member of the Historical and Architectural Landmarks Commission. All members of the Commission, with the exception of the Director of Metropolitan Development, shall be appointed for two-year terms, provided that the original appointment shall be two by the Council and one by the Mayor for terms ending December 31, 1972, and two members by the Council and one by the Mayor ending December 31, 1973.

2-352. Duties of the Commission. The Commission shall:

(A) Designate and identify areas, places, buildings, structures, works of arts and other objects having special historical architectural or aesthetic value, which shall be designated an Indianapolis Historical or Architectural Landmark.

(B) Recommend with respect to historical and architectural landmarks that the Council and/or the Mayor initiate and adopt appropriate measures for the preservation, protection, enhancement, rehabilitation, reconstruction, perpetuation or use of such landmarks.

2-353. Officers. The Commission shall annually elect a chairman and secretary of the Commission. The Clerk shall provide such secretarial services and office supplies as the Commission finds necessary for the conduct of its business. The Legal Division shall assign an attorney from its staff to attend the Commission's meetings and draft and prepare ordinances and resolutions as requested by the Commission and advise on such other legal matters as may arise from time to time in its deliberations.

2-354. Meetings. The Commission shall meet at such time and place as it may establish said meetings to be not less frequently than bi-monthly. The Clerk at the Commission's request shall arrange a suitable meeting room in the City-County Building.

2-355. Information from Department of Metropolitan Development. The Department of Metropolitan Development shall notify the Commission in writing when applications are made for building permits to add to, modify or remove any portion of any building or property designated or identified by the Commission as a historical or architectural landmark, and upon request of the Commission shall advise the Commission of any existing programs under study or any requests for changes in land use by zoning or variance which may effect the value of such landmarks.

Section 2. This ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its adoption and approval by the Mayor.

Which was read for the first time and referred to the Committee on Metropolitan Development.
