Noes 3, viz: Mr. Cottingham, Mr. Giffin and Mr. Ruckelshaus.

Proposal No. 549, 1972, retitled General Ordinance No. 142, 1972, reads as follows :

CITY-COUNTY GENERAL ORDINANCE NO. 142, 1972

A GENERAL ORDINANCE amending "the Code of Indianapolis and Marion County, 1970," as amended, and more particularly certain portions of Title 2, Chapter 4, by adding discrimination on the basis of sex to the practices within the jurisdiction of the Human Rights Commission and fixing a time when the ordinance shall take effect.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY-COUNTY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF INDIANAPOLIS AND OF MARION COUNTY, INDIANA:

SECTION 1. Section 2-447, Section 2-448, Section 449, Section 2-450 and Section 2-456 of Title 2, Chapter 4 of the Code of Indianapolis and Marion County, 1970 as amended, be and the same are hereby amended by changing the wording of Subsection (g) (A) and Subsection (g) (B) of Section 2-447; Subsection (i) and Subsection (ii) of Section 2-448; Subsection (e), Subsection (f) and Subsection (h) of Section 2-449; Subsection (d) of Section 2-450, and Subsection (a), Subsection (c) and Subsection (d) of Section 2-455, and by adding Subsection (f) to Section 2-456, as follows:

2-447. DEFINITIONS. As used in this chapter, unless a different meaning is clearly evident from the context. . . .

(g) The term "discriminatory practice" includes (1) the exclusion from or failure or refusal to extend to any person equal opportunities, or any difference in treatment of any person, by reason of race, sex, religion, color, national origin or ancestry; (2) the exclusion from or failure or refusal to extend to any person equal opportunities, or any difference in treatment of any person, because such person filed a complaint alleging a violation of this chapter, testified in a hearing before the commission, otherwise cooperated with the commission in the performance of its duties and functions under this chapter, or requested assistance from the commission in connection with any alleged discriminatory practice, whether or not such discriminatory practice would be in violation of this chapter; (3) in the case of a real estate broker or real estate salesman or agent, acting in such capacity in the ordinary course of his business or occupation—

(A) any attempt to prevent, dissuade or discourage any prospective purchaser, lessee or tenant of real estate from viewing, buying, leasing or renting such real estate because of the racial, sexual, religious or ethnic composition of (i) students, pupils or faculty of any school or school district or (ii) owners, occupants, or prospective owners or occupants of real estate in any neighborhood or on any street or block; provided that this clause shall not be construed to prohibit disclosure in response to inquiry by any prospective purchaser, lessee or tenant, of (a) information reasonably believed to be accurate regarding such racial, sexual, religious or ethnic composition, or (b) the honest professional opinion or belief of such broker, salesman or agent regarding factors which may affect the value or desirability of property available for purchase or lease; or . . .

(B) any solicitation, promotion, or attempt to influence or induce any owner to sell, lease, or list for sale or lease any real estate, which solicitation, promotion or attempted inducement includes representations concerning (i) race, sex, color, religion or national origin of present, prospective or possible purchasers or occupants of real estate in any area, neighborhood or particular street or block, or (ii) present, prospective or possible neighborhood unrest, tension, or change in the racial, sexual, religious or ethnic composition of occupants, or prospective occupants of real estate in any neighborhood or any street or block, or (iii) present, prospective or possible decline in market value of any real estate by reason of the present, prospective or possible entry into any neighborhood, street or block of persons of a particular race, sex, color, religion or national origin, or (iv) present, prospective or possible decline in the quality of education offered in any school or school district by reason of any change in the racial, sexual, religious, or ethnic composition of the students, pupils, or faculty of such school or district. . .

2-448. DECLARATION OF PURPOSE. It is the purpose of Section 2-446, et seq.

(i) to promote equality of opportunity for education, employment, access to public conveniences and accommodations and acquisition through purchase or rental of real property (including but not limited to housing) without regard to race, sex, religion, color, national origin or ancestry, through reasonable methods that do not create that which is sought to eliminated;

(ii) to eliminate segregation or separation based solely on race, sex, color, religion or national origin, since such segregation is an impediment to equal opportunity;

2-449. COMMISSION ON HUMAN RIGHTS — MEMBERSHIP-TERMS

(e) A commission member may be removed for cause but for no other reason by the appointing authority which appointed said member.

(f) In the event of the death, resignation or removal of any member of the commission prior to the expiration of term, the vacancy shall be filled by the appropriate appointing authority for the unexpired term of such member.

(h) The terms of office of the initial members of the commission shall expire on December 31 of the year in which such terms expire in accordance with the designation of terms made by the respective appointing authorities under subsections (b), (c), (d), and (e) of this section, regardless of when such appointments are made hereunder. Thereafter all appointments shall be for terms beginning January 1 and ending December 31. Any member of the commission whose term has expired may continue in office until a successor has been appointed.

2.450. GENERAL POWERS AND DUTIES OF COMMISSION.

The commission shall have the following powers and duties: . . .

(d) . To appoint, with the approval of the mayor, an executive director, who shall be the chief administrative officer of the commission and who shall devote full time and effort to the business of the commission and the administration of section 2-446 through 2-461 of this chapter. The executive director shall serve at the pleasure of the commission.

2-455. COURT ENFORCEMENT. (a) In any case where the commission has found in accordance with section 2-454 that a respondent has engaged or is engaged in a discriminatory practice in violation of this chapter, and such respondent has failed to correct or eliminate such discriminatory practice within ten (10) days after service upon him of the commission's findings, the commission may file in its own name in the Marion Circuit Court or Superior Court of Marion County or Municipal Court of Marion County a complaint against such respondent for the enforcement of this chapter. Such complaint may request such temporary or permanent injunctive relief as may be appropriate and such additional affirmative relief or orders as will effectuate the purposes of this chapter and as may be equitable, within the powers and jurisdiction of the court.

(c) Upon the filing of a complaint by a person claiming to be aggrieved, in accordance with section 2-452(a) hereof, the executive director may, with the approval of not less than three members of the commission (including the chairman or vice-chairman) in accordance with such procedures as the commission shall establish by rule, file a verified petition with copy of such complaint attached in the Marion Circuit Court or Superior Court of Marion County or Municipal Court of Marion County seeking appropriate temporary relief or injunction to prevent irreparable harm to the complainant, pending resolution of the complaint by the commission and the institution and completion of proceedings pursuant to sections 2-453 and 2-454 of this chapter.

(d) If the commission determines that any party to a conciliation agreement approved by the executive director under section 2-453(e) of this chapter has failed or refused to comply with the terms of such agreement, it may file a complaint in the name of the commission in the Marion Circuit Court or Superior Court of Marion County or Municipal Court of Marion County seeking an appropriate decree for enforcement of such agreement.

2-456. EXEMPTIONS AND LIMITATIONS. . .

(f) It shall not be discrimination on the basis of sex: (A) For any person to maintain separate rest rooms or dressing rooms for the exclusive use of either sex, or (B) For an employer to hire and employ employees, for an employment agency to classify or refer for employment any individual, for a labor organization to classify its membership or to classify or refer for employment any individual, or for any employer, labor organization or joint labor-management committee controlling apprenticeship or other training or retraining programs to admit or employ any individual in any such program on the basis of sex in those certain instances where sex is a bona fide occupational qualification reasonably necessary to the normal operation of that particular business or enterprise.
