INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 18, 1870.

To the Mayor and Common Council of the City of Indianapolis:

GENTLEMEN:—Your subscriber is possessed, in fee simple, of the following real estate, to-wit:

Five feet off the south side of lot eight (8), and twenty-four (24) feet off the north side of lot nine (9), in McKernan & Pierce's sub-division of out-lot twenty-seven (27), in the city of Indianapolis; and your subscriber would further state, that he is notified by the city authorities, that said lot has been condemned by the City Commissioners, for the purpose of straightening Pogue's run; but on examination of the list of assessment of damages and benefits for the straightening of said Pogue's run, it does not appear that your subscriber is benefitted to any amount whatever, although his entire lot, with the exception of five (5) feet, is condemned for the use of the channel of said Pogue's run as straightened.

Now, in order to obtain the value of said realty without the expense of litigation, your subscriber makes the following proposition, viz:

That he will sell to the city of Indianapolis said lot of realty, for the sum of nine hundred thirty-two dollars and twenty-two cents ($932 22), that being the cost of said lot to your subscriber, as follows:

Purchase money-----	$580 00
Interest on same at 6 per cent. since 1862-----	253 10
Tax on same-----	56 00
Street improvements-----	43 12
Total cost-----	$932 22

Respectfully submitted,

MICHAEL MALONEY.
