

PROCEEDINGS OF BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

SPECIAL SESSION—FEBRUARY 19, 1884.

The Board of Aldermen of the City of Indianapolis, met in the Aldermanic Chamber, Tuesday evening, February 19th, 1884, at eight o'clock, in special session, pursuant to the following call:

To the Members of the Board of Aldermen:

Gentlemen:—You are hereby requested to meet in special session in the Aldermanic Chamber, this, Tuesday evening, February 19, 1884, at half-past seven o'clock sharp, for the adoption of a motion passed at the regular session of the Council, held February 18, 1884, requiring an addition to be built to the Pest House, and such other business as may be presented.

Very respectfully,
BRAINARD RORISON, President.

PRESENT—Hon. Brainard Rorison, President of the Board of Aldermen, in the Chair, and Aldermen Berhamer, Cox, Endly, King, and Pritchard—6.

ABSENT—4, viz: Aldermen Cobb, McHugh, Prier, and Tallentire.

The following message was read and received:

To the President and Members of the Board of Aldermen:

Gentlemen:—I submit herewith the following motions and ordinance for your consideration, favorably passed upon by the Common Council at the regular session, held February 18, 1884.

For the Common Council:

GEO. T. BREUNIG, City Clerk.

The following motions (see page 104, ante), were read and concurrently adopted:

That the Hospital Board and Hospital Committee be, and are hereby, instructed to build an addition of 60 by 30 feet (frame), to the Pest House, and also to have a telephone put into the Pest House.

That Dr. Henthorne be authorized to employ a physician to vaccinate all persons in houses where small pox has occurred, receiving his pay from said parties so vaccinated, if able to pay; if not, from the city. Such physician not to charge to exceed 75 cents for each person.

The following ordinance was read the first time, and referred to the Committee on Judiciary and Ordinances:

G. O. 21, 1884—An ordinance making it unlawful to erect wooden buildings within certain limits in the City of Indianapolis, regulating certain matters pertaining thereto, and repealing all ordinances in conflict herewith.

On motion, the Board of Aldermen then adjourned.

BRAINARD RORISON, President.

Attest: FRANK W. RIPLEY, Clerk.
