March 6, 1944.

To the Honorable President and Members of the Common Council of the City of Indianapolis.

Gentlemen:

Submitted herewith is General Ordinance No. 19, 1944, amending Section 44 of General Ordinance No. 96, 1928, as amended by General Ordinance No. 68, 1938, making 34th Street from Meridian Street west to the entrance of Crown Hill Cemetery a preferential street at all times with the exception of the intersection of Illinois Street and Capitol Avenue, these two streets to remain preferential over 34th Street.

March 6, 1944]

City of Indianapolis, Ind.

181

We respectfully recommend the passage of this ordinance.

Respectfully submitted,

BOARD OF PUBLIC SAFETY,
By WM. H. REMY,
President.

February 28, 1944.

Mr. John A. Schumacher, President
Common Council
907 E. Michigan Street
Indianapolis, Indiana.

Dear Mr. Schumacher:

At its meeting February 23rd the Indianapolis Post-War Planning Committee adopted a resolution requesting the City Council to appoint a member of your body to attend all general meetings of the Indianapolis Post-War Planning Committee and act in an advisory capacity to that committee. As Secretary of the committee I was to extend this invitation to your body and to urge your acceptance of the invitation and the appointment of one of your membership to act in this capacity.

The Indianapolis Post-War Planning Committee has completed, to a large extent, its preliminary organization work. Numerous projects have been assigned for study to various committees. Within a short time these projects will be ready for consideration by the various governmental units which will finally carry them to completion.

The committee recognizes to the fullest extent the importance of keeping your body informed concerning the progress of these various projects and therefore considers it highly important that proper representation of your body have a full part in its deliberation.

I shall be very pleased to have your early acceptance of this invitation and your early reply.

Yours very truly,

JAMES W. CARR, Secretary
Indianapolis Post-War Planning Committee.

Mr. Bowers nominated President Schumacher to represent the Common Council on the Indianapolis Post-War Planning Committee, which was seconded by Mr. Dauss. Mr. Worley moved that the nominations be closed, which was seconded by Mr. Manly. President Schumacher was elected by the unanimous vote of the Common Council.

At this time those present were given an opportunity to be heard on Appropriation Ordinances Nos. 5, 11, 12, 16, 17, 18, 19, 1944, and General Ordinances Nos. 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15 and 16, 1944.

Mr. Bowers asked for recess. The motion was seconded by Mr. Jordan and the Council recessed at 7:40 p. m.

The Council reconvened at 8:45 p. m., with the same members present as before.
