June 8, 1944.

Mr. Frank J. Noll, Jr.,
City Clerk,
City Hall,
Indianapolis, Indiana.

Dear Mr. Noll:

I am returning to you herewith, without my signature, within ten days after its receipt by me, General Ordinance No. 21, 1944, as amended.

My objection to General Ordinance No. 21, as amended, is as follows:

After the investigation of the necessity for such Codification and the possibility of having this work performed without the employment of additional attorneys, I have reached the conclusion that this can be done by the Department of Law of the City of Indianapolis and thus save the tax-payers of this community approximately $6,000.00, the expenditure of which would be necessary in employing a Codification Commission.

Very truly yours,

ROBERT H. TYNDALL,

Mayor.
