To the Honorable President and Members of the Common Council of the City of Indianapolis

Gentlemen:

In Re: Special Ordinance No. 8, 1950

Recently the Common Council passed an ordinance defining the boundaries of the City of Indianapolis. Two boundary litigation actions were pending in the courts at the time the council defined the boundaries. The annexed territory involved in the litigation was excluded from the boundary ordinance, General Ordinance No. 78, 1950.

It has generally been agreed by the various city departments that at the present time this annexation should be dropped and certain smaller areas within the proposed annexed territory as defined in these Special Ordinances, Nos. 2 and 3 of 1947, may later be incorporated in the City.

We respectfully recommend the passage of this ordinance and will be glad to explain the purpose thereof to the council committee to which this proposed ordinance may be assigned.

Respectfully submitted,

DEPARTMENT OF LAW

Michael B. Reddington
City Attorney

At this time those present were given an opportunity to be heard on Appropriation Ordinances Nos. 23, 24, 25, 26, General Ordinances Nos. 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 1950.

Examination shall be of such a character as to test the fitness and qualifications of the applicant for the trade, business or calling of a heating contractor who must have a standing of at least 70% in his examination to be entitled to a license.

Falsehood or fraud in the examination shall be a sufficient cause for a refusal of a certificate together with the dismissal of his application. Upon failure to pass the required examination, another will not be granted until after the expiration of three months from the date of examination.

Section 10. The board shall have the power to suspend or reject any license or renewal thereof granted by said board for any fraud or deceit in obtaining a license or of gross negligence, incompetence or misconduct in the practice of the installation of heating equipment. The decision of the board shall be subject to review in the Marion Circuit Court in Marion County, such appeals to be taken within thirty days after the date in which the order was made by the board.
