PROPOSAL NO. 24, 1994. The proposal reappoints Urban I. Merl, Jr. to the Alcoholic Beverage Board of Marion County.

Councillor Williams stated that she believes Mr. Merl is a fine and hardworking person, but that the other members of the liquor board and the state board are moving forward--Mr. Merl is not. She said she will be voting against this reappointment.

Councillor Franklin stated that it is his opinion that Mr. Merl adheres to the laws as they are currently written. He will be supporting Mr. Merl.

Councillor McClamroch stated that Mr. Merl is a long-time member of the liquor board and has served many years with distinction. Councillor McClamroch said that he believes that Councillor Williams is trying to change Indiana law. She wants neighborhoods to have more involvement in the decision of renewal licenses. He said that he agrees with her but current Indiana law specifically does not include that kind of involvement. He urged the Councillors to approve Mr. Merl's nomination.

February 14, 1994

Councillor Curry said that Mr. Merl has been a member of this board since 1977 and has missed only one meeting. Councillor Curry reported that by a 4-1 vote, the Rules and Public Policy Committee reported the proposal to the Council with the recommendation that it do pass.

Councillors Borst, Gilmer and Mullin voiced their support of Mr. Merl.

Councillor Brents said she believes there should a minority on that board. She said that she will be voting against this nomination.

Councillor Black asked which law prohibits Mr. Merl to vote on behalf of the neighborhoods. The President said that just because a neighborhood does not want a liquor store in their neighborhood is not enough of a basis to refuse to renew a license, especially if the liquor store has been legally conducted and the proprietor is of good repute.

Councillor Gray said that he believes that Mr. Merl has been a member of the liquor board too long and it is time for a change.

Proposal No. 24, 1994 was adopted on the following roll call vote; viz:

21 YEAS: Beadling, Borst, Coughenour, Curry, Dowden, Franklin, Gilmer, Golc, Hinkle, McClamroch, Moriarty Adams, Mullin, O'Dell, Rhodes, Ruhmkorff, Schneider, SerVaas, Shambaugh, Short, Smith, West

Proposal No. 24, 1994 was retitled COUNCIL RESOLUTION NO. 39, 1994 and reads as follows:

CITY-COUNTY COUNCIL RESOLUTION NO. 39, 1994

A COUNCIL RESOLUTION reappointing Urban I. Merl, Jr. to the Alcoholic Beverage Board of Marion County.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE CITY-COUNTY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF INDIANAPOLIS AND OF MARION COUNTY, INDIANA:

SECTION 1. As a member of the Alcoholic Beverage Board of Marion County, the Council appoints:

Urban I. Merl, Jr.

SECTION 2. The appointment made by this resolution is for a term ending December 31, 1994. The person appointed by this resolution shall serve at the pleasure of the Council and until his respective successor is appointed and has qualified.

Councillor Williams said as a point of information that there has been some very positive changes at the state legislature this year concerning this matter. A bill has passed the house, and it is now in the senate. Joe Loftus, Deputy Mayor, has been doing a tremendous job of sheparding this law through, but the bill needs help from the senate Republicans.

Councillor Schneider asked what is the bill. Councillor Williams outlined the bill in general as follows: (1) The owners of liquor stores upon license renewal will have to notify neighborhood organizations and nearby churches; (2) The owners of liquor stores will be more responsible for the business premises as opposed to simply the license premises; and (3) the Liquor Board is given the option to renew for two or three years those licenses that are not troublesome.

PROPOSAL NO. 655, 1993. Councillor Dowden reported that the Public Safety and Criminal Justice Committee heard Proposal No. 655, 1993 on January 5 and February 2, 1994. The proposal, sponsored by Councillors Beadling and McClamroch, amends the Code concerning numbering buildings. Councillor Dowden stated that this proposal changes the agency who assigns numbers from the Board of Public Works to the Department of Metropolitan Development and increases the fine from $5 to $7.50 for a first offense and from $10 to $25 for a second offense. All the public safety agencies support this proposal. By a 6-0 vote, the Committee reported the proposal to the Council with the recommendation that it do pass as amended. Councillor Dowden moved, seconded by Councillor Beadling, for adoption.

Councillor Beadling stated that this proposal also requires businesses to display the proper building numbers on their back doors if they have deliveries or customers who come to those doors. The post office also supports this proposal. She said that she heard that some people were concerned that a person might go to jail if they did not appear in court concerning a $7.50 fine. She asked Sue Beesley, Corporation Counsel, to speak to this issue.

Ms. Beesley said a premises address violation would be handled through the Ordinance Violations Bureau and, if necessary, the City Prosecutor's Office. This is a civil process, not a criminal process. To her knowledge there has never been incarceration involved with an ordinance violation.

Councillor Franklin said that he believes this is a good proposal, but it could be improved by making it one person's responsibility to comply with the provisions of this law.

Councillor Borst asked if this ordinance includes the excluded cities. Robert Elrod, General Counsel, said that it includes the Consolidated City of Indianapolis, which is all of Marion County except the four excluded cities: Speedway, Lawrence, Beech Grove and Southport.

Councillor Borst said that he is concerned about the penalties. He would like to have a grace period for the first offense. He moved to amend Proposal No. 655, 1993 as follows:

(1) A new Sec. 28-311:

Sec. 28-311. Penalties.

(a) The first premises address violation in any calendar year shall be subject to a written warning explaining how to correct the violation and explaining subsequent violation penalties.

(b) The second premises address violation in any calendar year shall be subject to admission of violation and payment of the designated civil penalty through the ordinance violations bureau in accordance with Chapter 103 of the Revised Code of the Consolidated City and County.

(c) All subsequent violations in the calendar year are subject to the enforcement procedures and penalties provided in Sec. 1-8 of the Code of Indianapolis and Marion County, Indiana.

(2) Delete the first offense fine for premises address violation in Sec. 103-52.

Councillor Jimison seconded this motion.

Councillor Gilmer spoke against that amendment. He said that this proposal could save lives. If someone dialed 911 and the numbers are not displayed on the house, it could be a matter of life and death.

Councillor Coughenour spoke in favor of Councillor Borst's amendment because people should be given a warning first before being cited.

Councillor Williams said that there seems to be a lot of debate over a concept that everyone agrees to but which needs a little more work. She moved to return this proposal to committee. Councillor Gray seconded the motion.

The President said he also has an amendment to offer on this proposal. He asked Councillor Beadling if she would be opposed to sending this back to Committee. Councillor Beadling said that she would rather not see it sent back to Committee, but if that is the wish of this body, she would go along with it.

Councillor Williams' motion to return Proposal No. 655, 1993 to Committee passed by the following roll call vote; viz:

16 YEAS: Black, Boyd, Brents, Coughenour, Franklin, Gilmer, Golc, Gray, Hinkle, Jimison, Jones, Mullin, SerVaas, Short, Smith, Williams

12 NAYS: Beadling, Borst, Curry, Dowden, McClamroch, Moriarty Adams, O'Dell, Rhodes, Ruhmkorff, Schneider, Shambaugh, West

The President said that he would like to be added as a sponsor to Proposal No. 655, 1993.

PROPOSAL NO. 20, 1994. The proposal, sponsored by Councillor West, amends Council Resolution No. 19, 1991 to correct the expiration date of the term of William B. Powers as a member of the Citizens Police Complaint Board. Councillor Dowden asked for consent to strike Proposal No. 20, 1994. Consent was given.

PROPOSAL NO. 27, 1994. Councillor Dowden reported that the Public Safety and Criminal Justice Committee heard Proposal No. 27, 1994 on February 2, 1994. The proposal renews the Community Corrections program for fiscal year 1994-1995 and approving the Community Corrections Advisory Board's grant application to the State.
