Mr. Houck presented the following written motion to amend General Ordinance No. 24, 1934:

April 2, 1934

Mr. President:

I move that General Ordinance No. 24, 1934, be amended to read as follows, to-wit:

GENERAL ORDINANCE No. 24, 1934
(Amended)

An ordinance licensing and regulating itinerant junk dealers, prescribed penalties for violation of this ordinance, and fixing a time when the same shall take effect.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COMMON COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF INDIANAPOLIS, MARION COUNTY, STATE OF INDIANA:

Section 1. That the term "itinerant junk dealer" for the purpose of this ordinance shall be defined as a person, firm or corporation, or association without an established store or warehouse in the City of Indianapolis, or an established junk peddling business in the City of Indianapolis, serving regular customers on substantially fixed routes, that buys or offers to buy, sells or offers to sell from a cart, wagon, truck, automobile, or other vehicle, operated and/or propelled over and/or stationed upon the streets and thoroughfares of the City of Indianapolis, and/or temporarily located on an open lot in the City of Indianapolis, any waste, used or second hand iron, pipe, brass, copper, tin, zinc, lead or rags, rubber, bottles, broken glass, paper, or other like waste material, junk, or by-products of or to any person, firm or corporation.

Section 2. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation, or association to engage in the business of an itinerant junk dealer in the City of Indianapolis without first having been duly licensed so to do as hereinafter provided. Every applicant for a license shall make application in writing to the City Controller, which application shall set forth the name under which the business is to be conducted, and the name of every person interested in said business. Said application shall contain as reference the names of at least two citizens of the City of Indianapolis as to the character of the applicant or applicants.

Section 3. Licenses for the carrying on of the business of itinerant junk dealer shall be issued annually and shall expire on the 31st day of December of each year; shall not be transferrable and no deductions shall be allowed from the fee for such license for any part of the year during which the licensee shall not exercise the right of such license. The license fee for carrying on the business of itinerant junk dealer, as herein defined, shall be Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) per annum.

Section 4. Every licensee as itinerant junk dealer shall execute and file a bond in the sum of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) payable to the City of Indianapolis, to be approved by the City Controller as to sureties and form, which bond shall be conditioned upon the faithful observance of the provisions of this ordinance and of all other ordinances of the City of Indianapolis and the laws of the State of Indiana concerning or regulating the purchase and sale of products dealt in by the licensee, and it shall also be conditioned so as to indemnify any person obtaining a judgment against the licensee because of any damage sustained on account of the violation by the licensee of said ordinances, or laws, or because of misrepresentation or deception which may have been practised on such person by the licensee while carrying on his licensed business.

Section 5. Upon filing of the bond and the payment of the license fee hereinbefore prescribed, the City Controller shall issue to the applicant a license as itinerant junk dealer and shall furnish to the said licensee two metal signs not less than six (6) inches wide and nine (9) inches long, upon which shall be inscribed "Itinerant Junk Dealer's License, Indianapolis, No.-----" giving in the blank space the number of such license and the year during which the same shall be in force, which metal signs shall be securely fastened in plain view on both sides of the vehicle used by such licensee whenever he is engaged in operating under such license.

Section 6. Every person licensed to conduct, maintain or engage in the business of an itinerant junk dealer shall keep a book in which shall be legibly written in ink, at the time of the purchase, taking or receiving of any goods, articles or things, and preserve an accurate account and description in the English language, of the goods, articles or things purchased, taken or received; the amount of money paid therefor, the time of purchasing, taking or receiving the same; the name, residence, age, color, height, weight, complexion, style of beard, style of dress and number of licensed badge of the person or persons selling or delivering said goods, articles or things.

Section 7. Every person licensed as aforesaid, shall make out and deliver to the Chief of Police every day before the hour of twelve, noon, a legible and correct copy from the book required in the next preceding section, giving an accurate account and description of the goods, articles or things taken or received during the preceding day; the price paid for same; the precise time of purchasing, taking or receiving of same; the name, residence, age, color, height, weight, complexion, style of beard, style of dress and number of license badge of person or persons from whom such goods, articles or things were purchased, taken or received; said copy to be made on blank white paper ten by twenty inches in size, on one side thereof only, in the following form:

OFFICE OF

 No.-----Street
 Indianapolis, Indiana

Report of all property received by me as an itinerant junk dealer, my agents, servants and employes, since the making of my last report, as required by an ordinance of said city regulating the duties of itinerant junk dealers.

Signature-----

Section 8. The book provided for in the above section of this ordinance shall at all reasonable times be open to the inspection of the Chief of Police, or any member of the police force authorized by said Chief to examine same, and such book shall be kept by said itinerant junk dealer upon his vehicle during all business hours.

Section 9. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation, licensed as aforesaid, to purchase, take or receive any goods, articles or things from any person when such person is in an intoxicated condition.

Section 10. Any person, firm, corporation or association violating any of the provisions of this ordinance, shall, on conviction be fined in any sum not exceeding Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00) to which may be added imprisonment for any period not exceeding six months.

Section 11. This ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage, approval by the Mayor and publication according to law.

J. A. HOUCK.
