From the Department of Law:

September 18, 1920.

To the President and Members of the Common Council,
of the City of Indianapolis, Indiana.

Gentlemen: The Legal Department has received a copy of the last will and testament of James A. Lane, who formerly resided at No. 2030 Park Avenue, this city.

Mr. Lane was a legal resident of Lebanon, Boone County, Indiana, at the time of his death, as I am informed, and for that reason his will has been duly probated in the Boone Circuit Court.

By item 14, this testator bequeathed to the City of Indianapolis the sum of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) upon the express condition that the City of Indianapolis appropriate and give a like sum of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) to be used and expended by and through the Board of Health of said city for the use and benefit of the City Hospital only. Said item 14 reads as follows:

"Item 14. I give, devise and bequeath to the City of Indianapolis, Indiana, the sum of Ten Thousand Dollars (10,000.00). This gift and bequest is given upon the express condition, however, that the City of Indianapolis appropriate and give a like sum of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00), said two sums to be used and expended by and through the Board of Health of said city for the use and benefit of the City Hospital only, and if the said city of Indianapolis should refuse to accept said gift and bequest upon the conditions herein mentioned, then this gift and bequest is revoked and cancelled and the said sum of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) herein given and bequeathed to said city is to go to and remain in the residuum of my estate and be disposed of under the residuary clause of this my last will and testament."

This estate is now in process of settlement. I am not informed just when the executor will be ready to make payment, but deemed it proper to bring this matter to the attention of the Council at this time for its consideration.

Yours very truly,

SAMUEL ASHBY,

Corporation Counsel.

September 17, 1920.

To the President and Members of the Common Council,

of the City of Indianapolis, Indiana.

Gentlemen: The Common Council by unanimous vote on the 5th day of January, 1920, adopted Resolution No. 1, 1920, authorizing the Mayor and Corporation Counsel to co-operate with others interested in the presentation to the General Assembly of the State of Indiana for passage of an act providing for the levy of taxes and the issue of bonds, and the appropriation of money for the securing of a site and the erection and maintenance in the City of Indianapolis jointly by the State of Indiana and the County of Marion and the City of Indianapolis, or jointly by the City of Indianapolis and the County of Marion, or by the City of Indianapolis alone, of a monument or memorial hall and other buildings and structures, to commemorate the bravery, courage and valor of the soldiers and sailors of the United States and all others who rendered faithful, loyal, heroic and self-sacrificing service at home and overseas in the Great World War, and for other purposes, as stated in said resolution.

Pursuant to said resolution three separate bills were prepared, one known as the State Memorial Bill, one as the County Memorial Bill, and one as the City Memorial Bill, and presented to the Special Session of the General Assembly in July, 1920.

In the preparation of the bills, Mr. Samuel D. Miller, Judge Charles Remster, William H. Thompson, with Samuel Ashby, Corporation Counsel, acted as the committee. Later, the bills were submitted to a larger committee for suggestions and criticisms, appointed by the Governor of the State, consisting of Henry H. Hornbrook, Frank H. Hatfield, Allison H. Stuart, Wm. F. White, R. D. McCord, Samuel D. Royce, Abram Simmons and Judge Quincy A. Myers. The bills as finally agreed upon were submitted to the Legislature at the Special Session.

The State bill, with some modifications, which dedicated the Blind Asylum grounds and St. Clair Park for memorial place and made a tax levy of six mills on each One Hundred Dollars for the years 1920, 1921, 1922, 1923, 1924 and 1925 was passed.

The City Memorial bill which authorized the city to appropriate Three Millions of Dollars and sell bonds not less than twenty nor more than fifty series, and the County Memorial bill which authorized the county to appropriate Two Million Dollars to sell bonds at not less than twenty nor more than fifty series, were each favorably reported by the Ways and Means Committee to the House, but each of said bills failed of passage on the last day of the session on account of failure to suspend the constitutional rules, there being 67 or a bare quorum present. Sixty-two voted in favor of the suspension of the rules and only five against.

While these bills failed of passage at the Special Session for the reason stated, it was clear that there would have been practically no opposition to the passage of the bills in either the House of Representatives or the Senate.

Under these circumstances, I consider it my duty to report these facts officially to the City Council, and ask its direction for further proceeding in regard to the World War Memorial.

Yours truly,

SAMUEL ASHBY,

Corporation Counsel.

INTRODUCTION OF MISCELLANEOUS BUSINESS.

By the Department of Law:

RESOLUTION NO. 4, 1920.

Whereas, the Common Council of the City of Indianapolis on the 5th day of January, 1920, unanimously adopted Resolution No. 1, 1920, which resolution was in words and figures following, to-wit:

RESOLUTION NO. 1, 1920.

Whereas, the American Legion, after due consideration of the claims and advantages of other cities, have selected the City of Indianapolis as the best and most advantageous location for the National Headquarters of that one hundred per cent American patriotic organization composed of soldiers and sailors of the United States in the Great World War, and

Whereas, the location of the National Headquarters of such an organization in our city is a matter of state-wide interest and concern and of supreme public importance which will promote the general welfare of the State of Indiana, the County of Marion and the City of Indianapolis; now therefore

Be it resolved by the Common Council of the City of Indianapolis, Indiana, That Mayor Charles W. Jewett and Corporation Counsel Samuel Ashby be and they are hereby requested to co-operate with the others interested in the preparation of and presentation to the General Assembly of the State of Indiana for passage, an act providing for the levy of taxes and the issue of bonds and the appropriation of money for the securing of a site and the erection and maintenance in the City of Indianapolis, jointly by the State of Indiana, the County of Marion and the City of Indianapolis, or jointly by the City of Indianapolis and the County of Marion, or by the City of Indianapolis alone, of a monument, or a memorial hall and other buildings and other structures, or a monument and memorial hall or other buildings and other structures, to commemorate the bravery, courage and valor of the soldiers and sailors of the United States and of all others who rendered faithful, loyal, heroic and self-sacrificing service at home and overseas in the glorious part which the United States took in the Great World War, and to provide a place or places of meeting and headquarters for local, city, county, state and national organizations of such soldiers and sailors and others, in order to teach the duties and benefits of American citizenship and inspire patriotism and respect for the law to the end that peace may prevail, good will be promoted, justice administered and established public order maintained and liberty and freedom under the law be perpetuated.
