Indianapolis, July 20th, 1886.

To the President and Board of Aldermen:

Gentlemen:—We respectfully pray you to non-concur in the repeal of that section of the license law, which passed the last meeting of the City Council pertaining to wholesale dealers. The license law, as it stands, is hard on us retail dealers, but we have complied with the ordinance, and if we, the poor classes, can comply, there is no good sufficient reason why the monied wholesale dealers can not pay the $30.00. The whole truth of the matter is, that the wholesalers, as they egotistically term themselves, want to retail. We would ask if the wholesalers are exempted, to exempt the retailers.

Yours, respectfully,

LOUIS GOLDSMITH, and others.

Alderman Prier presented the following remonstrance, which was referred to the Committee on Streets and Alleys and Sewer Sand Drainage, with the Ordinance, S. O. 128, 1885:
