Almerman Rail presented the following remonstrance:

To the Board of Aldermen of the City of Indianapolis, Indiana, and all others concerned:

Gentlemen:—In the matter of the annexation of certain lots and lands by the said city, to-wit: Commencing on the present north corporation line of the city and on the west line of Meridian street, running thence north with said west line to Twenty-second street, south line; thence west with said south line of said Twenty-second street to the east line to Mississippi street; thence south with said east line of Mississippi street to the present north corporation line of said city; thence east with said north corporation line to the place of beginning, we, the undersigned citizens, voters, and owners of a large part of the lots and lands lying within said boundaries, do herein enter our objections and protest to the proposed annexation of said realty. We offer, among others we have, a few important reasons why the proposed annexation scheme should not succeed:

First—That the present proceedings, as instituted by the Council, are irregular and illegal, not having complied with the law. (See Section 3,196 of Statutes of 1881, and also all papers in this matter.)
SIG. 78.

Second.—We would be compelled to pay city taxes, for which, for a long time, we would receive no return, as we would not get fire and police protection.

Third.—It would put the City of Indianapolis to a large expense in furnishing fire protection and maintain a Police force, and water and gas supplies.

Fourth.—We do not want to sell our property to the Monon Railroad corporation, or to any other corporation.

Respectfully submitted,
Aug. Westfield, Henry Smith, Thos. Baldwin, Charles
Davis, Perry Green Porter—and 29 others.
