

Volunteer and Ideas Request

Dear Readers:

As the Summer winds down and our next issue is weeks away from being published, we'd like to encourage you to submit ideas for what you would like to see in future issues. If you have ideas for an article or even a whole issue focus, we would love to hear from you: <https://airtable.com/shrR8KXQVrYzm6GcS>

We are also looking for interested individuals to volunteer for peer-reviewing, marketing, website maintenance and other opportunities. It's a great way to meet new colleagues, improve your skill set, and contribute to the profession. Volunteer here: <https://airtable.com/shrb57mTVGyKC76lx>

Our journal can only be enhanced by involvement with the community.

We look forward to hearing from you.
