Shepard's Immigration & Naturalization Citations

Cost-effective system saves research time and money in this specialized field of law.

Now you can be sure your case, statute and administrative decision research is accurate and up to date for any immigration and naturalization problem you're handling.

With this single time-saving source, you can easily locate the information you need, without wading through many separate volumes and series.

Immigration & Naturalization Citations is the first and only comprehensive federal law citation system which helps you deal efficiently with legal problems such as:

- visas
- asylum
- deportation proceedings
- illegal aliens
- marriage of non-citizens to citizens
- other problems of non-citizens and naturalized citizens
- and all other immigration and naturalization matters.

Immigration and naturalization is a growing, lucrative field of practice. But even if you do not specialize, this new citator system helps you handle the occasional immigration case quickly and cost-effectively.

You will benefit from the fast, accurate access it provides to administrative decisions, federal cases, U.S. code provisions and federal regulations as cited in:

- decisions by the U.S. Supreme Court in cases reported in the three series of reports of U.S.
 Supreme Court cases
- decisions by the lower federal courts in cases reported in the Federal Reporter, Federal Supplement and Federal Rules Decisions
- Immigration & Nationality Decisions
- selected leading law reviews
- and in the U.S. statutes at large.

Shepard's Immigration & Naturalization Citations enables you to expand or limit your search. It can direct you to all the information available . . . or it can help you select and evaluate only the pertinent material you want to consider.
