COMPARATIVE NEGLIGENCE

By
Victor E. Schwartz*

©1974 • 434 pp. • price, with 1981 supplement. $42.50 • ISBN 0-87473-075-9

Indiana's new Comparative Fault Act (IC 34-4-33) is effective January 1, 1985. This broad statute presents a whole new series of strategic considerations for both plaintiff and defense counsel. Attorneys in Indiana will find that no matter what the issue is, if it involves a case in the law of torts, the statute can have a major effect on the outcome.

Mr. Schwartz' treatise, the definitive work on the subject, constitutes the best source for answers to the many and varied questions which arise in application of the doctrine. The work, cited in numerous court decisions, is a basic and reliable text that belongs on the desk of every attorney and in all court libraries.

*Partner, Crowell & Moring, Washington, D.C.; Adjunct Professor of Law, American University. Co-author, Prosser, Wade & Schwartz, Cases and Materials on Torts (7th ed. 1982). Mr. Schwartz served as consultant to the Committee of the Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws in preparation of the Uniform Comparative Fault act; he is the principal author of the Uniform Product Liability Act. In great demand as a lecturer, Mr. Schwartz was on the faculty of the Institute on the Comparative Fault Act presented by ICLEF at the 1984 Spring Meeting of the Indiana State Bar Association.
