Forward—1985 Survey of Recent Developments in Indiana Law

The Board of Editors of the Indiana Law Review is pleased to publish its annual Survey of Recent Developments in Indiana Law. The Survey covers the period from June 1, 1984, to May 31, 1985, with deviations from this period when necessary to treat the developments adequately.

Since the Law Review began publishing a Survey thirteen years ago, the Survey has grown in importance to members of the bench and bar as well as to law students and faculty. The current Survey reflects some changes from the format of previous issues. It no longer attempts to chronicle all the developments in a subject area in a single article. Other publications perform that function in a format that better ensures timely dissemination. Instead, the Board of Editors has decided to present a more in-depth discussion of the most significant developments in Indiana law. We believe that it is incumbent on a law review to provide this more detailed analysis and that this format will better serve the readers of the Survey. We welcome your comments and suggestions in this regard.
