Family In Law.

In 1933, BNA first published The United States Law Week. With that first issue, BNA set a new standard for high-quality legal reporting and research. Following Law Week's precedent, BNA has since launched a family of information services for legal professionals.

BNA's notification services cover key areas of the legal field. They include: Family Law Reporter; BNA's Bankruptcy Law Reporter; Business Law Adviser; Corporate Governance Report; Mergers & Acquisitions Law Report; BNA's Patent, Trademark & Copyright Journal; and Criminal Law Reporter.

Whichever publication you choose, you'll notice the family resemblance — comprehensive, accurate, in-depth coverage.

Ask your professor for details on low student rates for BNA information services.
Published four times a year by Indiana University. Editorial and Business Offices are located at:

Indiana Law Review
735 W. New York Street
Indianapolis, IN 46202-5194
(317) 274-4440

Subscriptions. For the following academic year, subscription rates will be $30.00 per four-issue (domestic mailing) and $35.00 (foreign mailing). Unless the Business Office receives notice to the contrary, all subscriptions will be renewed automatically. Address changes must be received at least one month prior to publication to ensure prompt delivery and must include old and new address and the proper zip code.

Single and Back Issues. Current single regular issues may be obtained from the Law Review Business Office for $10.00. Current Survey issues may be purchased for $20.00. The Symposium Issue may be purchased for $15.00. Please enclose payment with order. Complete sets and single issues of prior volumes are also available from the Law Review Business Office. Unless a claim is made for nonreceipt of issues within one year of the mailing date, we cannot guarantee supplying the issues without charge.

Manuscripts. The Indiana Law Review invites submission of unsolicited manuscripts. All citations should conform to The Bluebook A Uniform System of Citation (16th ed. 1996). Manuscripts should be double-spaced with standard one-inch margins. The Indiana Law Review, as a matter of policy, promotes the use of gender-neutral language, and alternate use of the female or male pronoun is intended to refer to both female and male.

The entire text of this Law Review is printed on recycled paper.
The Indiana International & Comparative Law Review, published by the Indiana University School of Law—Indianapolis since 1991, is a student-edited law journal which provides a forum for the discussion and analysis of contemporary issues in public and private international law. The Review publishes articles by prominent legal scholars, practitioners, and policy makers from around the world, as well as student-written notes and comments.

The Review is published twice annually, with a periodic third issue devoted to a specific topic in international or comparative law. In 1994, in conjunction with the Italian Academy for Advanced Studies in America at Columbia University, the Review published a special issue on the political and social aspects of Italian law. In 1996, the Review published an issue addressing various aspects of Chinese law.
