BNA's Law School Program

Multiple platforms, more choices — for staff and students.

Delivery of timely information is one of the cornerstones of BNA's success. Now, BNA delivers services electronically, through IP authentication, to all law school faculty staff and their students.

By subscribing to any of four law school-wide electronic packages or building your own custom package, you can give your students access to the same valuable information as practicing attorneys. They'll conduct research and follow changes in the law in the same way senior partners do. Your students will not only be prepared for internships and clerkships, they'll be better equipped for any job.

To learn more about BNA's law school program, call BNA Customer Service at 800-572-3374 or visit us at www.bna.com/lawschool.

Indiana International & Comparative Law Review

The Indiana International & Comparative Law Review, published by the Indiana University School of Law - Indianapolis since 1991, is a student-edited law journal that provides a forum for the discussion and analysis of contemporary issues in public and private international law. The Review publishes articles by prominent legal scholars, practitioners, and policy makers from around the world, as well as student-written notes and comments.

The Review is published twice annually, with a periodic third issue devoted to a specific topic in international or comparative law. In 1994, in conjunction with the Italian Academy for Advanced Studies in America at Columbia University, the Review published a special issue on the political and social aspects of Italian law. In 1996, the Review published an issue addressing various aspects of Chinese law.

Indiana Law Review Symposium

The Fair Housing Act After 40 Years:
Continuing the Mission to Eliminate
Housing Discrimination and Segregation

April 3-4, 2008

The Indiana Law Review is pleased to host a Symposium in celebration of the 40th anniversary of the passage of the Federal Fair Housing Act. The event will commence with a keynote address on the evening of April 3, 2008, by Theodore M. Shaw, Esq., Director-Counsel and President of the NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund, Inc. A reception will follow the keynote address. The Indiana Law Review anticipates that free tickets will be required to attend the keynote address.

The Symposium will be held on April 4, 2008, at the Indiana University School of Law - Indianapolis in the John and Barbara Wynne Courtroom. This date marks the passage of four decades since the tragic assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Dr. King’s inspiring message of equal opportunity for every person and his commitment to changing views and attitudes are embodied in the Fair Housing Act. The Symposium will pay a special tribute to Dr. King and will honor his legacy through collaborative efforts to continue the eradication of housing discrimination and segregation.

CLE Certification (Pending Approval)

The Indiana Law Review is currently seeking CLE certification for this event and will post registration information for the Symposium as soon as it is available at http://www.indylaw.indiana.edu/ilr/symposium.htm.

The Indiana Law Review is honored to host this Symposium event and to publish a Symposium issue dedicated to a topic of such vital importance. For additional information regarding this event, including a list of guest speakers, please visit the Symposium website at http://www.indylaw.indiana.edu/ilr/symposium.htm or contact Elizabeth Ellis, Symposium Editor, at ilrevent@iupui.edu.
