

the new art in europe

everyone is publishing, we are distributing:

self-publishing artists, small publishing houses, exhibition catalogues.

our main field:

artist books, catalogues on artist books, photography.

nobody knew how many books were published in europe by self-publishers and the very small houses, which are interested in the brand new art, because there was no distributing system for these books.

now we have more than 400 titles on stock.
